Tacoma Wash., October 4.-The steamer Victoria brings news of the most disastrous flords that have visited China for many Sixty viilages near Tung Chou, contain ing over 80,000 inhabitants, have been destroyed by floods and the people drowned or forced to flee. There is no means of finding out how many thousands have been drowned, but the number is estimated by Chinese authorities at 15,000 to 20,000. The flooded district is within twelve miles of Pekin, the capital of China. As a rule, Chinese officials make very little stir when a calamity like this happens, but the proximity of the disaster has resulted in its being brought to the attention of the emperor, who has ordered that all possible

Survivors from the villages nearest Pekin have been allowed such shelter as George for mayor.

An appeal will be made to single tax they can find on the city walls, but thousands are without protection against the rain, which continues to fall. The distress of these people is most pitiable. Publicspirited and wealthy men of Pekin and Tung Chou are actively assisting the authorities in providing them with food. The floods have greatly damaged a large number of estates belonging to Pekin nobles. The unusual rains began July 23d and continued until August 15th. The crops n the flooded district were destroyed. The prefects, local magistrates and people of the flooded district prayed for the cessation of the rain seven days before they were finally driven out of their homes. Early in September high officials of Peking and Tien-Tsin suddenly forbade the slaughter of cattle, their object being to appease the wrath of God and stop the rain. Proclamations to this effect were posted. The result was to cut off the entire meat supply, which led foreign consuls to protest against the prohibition and to report the situation to the foreign ministers at Peking. It is claimed that the action of the officials constitutes a lolation of the treaty rights.

Early in September there was another uprising in Formosa. A battle took place which resulted in the killing of 200 rebels and many Japanese soldiers. Captain Takeuchi, who commanded the Japanese, cut down thirty rebels with his own

General Garcia Makes Report of Capture of Victoria de Las Tunas.

THEY LAID SIEGE TWO DAYS

Eighteen Forts were Captured by Storm After Stubborn Defense.

GREAT QUANTITIES OF ARMS WERE TAKEN

The Official Document Denies Alleged Depredations Shown in Weyler's Statement.

New York, October 4.-General Calixto Garcia's official report of the capture of Victoria de las Tunas by the Cuban forces under his command was received today by the Cuban junta.

According to the report on August 28th siege was laid to the town which surren dered two days later, after all but one of the eighteen forts defending it had beer carried by storm.

The Cuban forces numbered 2,000 men of the Oriental infantry and 500 men of the Camaguey cavalry. War material which fell into the hands of the Cubans consisted of 2.200 machetes, two Krupp guns, 500 shells, more than 1,000,000 cartridges and a large quantity of medicines and provisions

The Spanish losses were 250 men killed and wounded and 450 prisoners. Those of the latter number who did not join the Cuban ranks were divided into three groups and escorted to the outskirts of Holguin Puerto Parre and Puerto Principe. The Cuban loss was:

Killed, twenty-six officers and men, among them Colonel Joseph Chapleau, of Boston, and Lieutenant Francisco Sedano wounded, seventy officers and men, Brigadiers Miguel Betancourt and Marco Meno cal among them.

In the articles of capitulation signed by the Spanish commander of the place and the surgeon in charge of the Spanish hospital special mention is made of the kind reatment given by the Cubans to the Spanish sick and wounded.

The original document will be forwarded to Washington by the Cuban junta in order to disprove the false report given ou at the palace in Havana whereby the Cubans are represented as committing all sorts of depredations on capturing the

The match was virtually for the championship of the featherweight class, and Smith is now at the top. The fight was not a remarkably fast one the men taking no chances, except in two or three rounds when Dixon attempted to ferce matters. Smith, however, who has greatly im proved since he met Dixon, had all the befter of the in-fighting, using his right with great effect, both on the body and head. Smith was cool throughout the fight, and came out without a mark

His blocking and ducking of Dixon's lead were the features of the fight, and kept him out of harm's way.

broad avenue, but is close to a district wherein there have been veritable nests of vellow fever cases. Sister Barbara, of the Maraisit hospital, was among those taken

Many patients were discharged as recovered, and among them was Ed Roddy, of the Illinois Central road, who had been sick but a week.

An agreement was reached the other day between the health authorities and the undertakers that hearses should be allowed for the burial of yellow fever patients, but that every trace of drapery should be renoved from funeral cars thus used. Yes terday an uncertaker failed to remove the cloth teaster from his hearse, and in structions were issued to the undertakers today that in future a stern compliance with this rule would be required. It is extremely difficult to disinfect a hearse, and the authorities are determined that none shall be used that are not barren of drapery inside. Will Detain Immigrants.

A special meeting of the board of health was held this afternoon to discuss the forthcoming arrival of the Sicilian immigrants. Surgeon Carter, of the marine hos pital service, the agents of the vessel, and Leon Godchaux, the millionaire planter, were called in to consultation. There was a full discussion of the proposition to de-tain the vessel. The agents protested vigprously, but after persuasion said they would withhold their objections if they were compensated for their delay. Godehaux said that the plantations in the vicinity of Donaidsonville, a hundred miles away, would take most, if not all the immigrants. Resolutions were finally adopted by the board, providing that the snip shall be detained at quaranthe at the mouth of the river until furner orders, and a notice to this effect was sent to Collector

Wilkinson. 'Ine man, Connie O'Brien, who was responsible for the mob exhibition on Phillip stree, jast Saturday, was tried today and discharged. The evidence was conclusive that he had resisted the health officers, and that his action came near creating a rior but Professor Metz, on behalf of the board of nealth, said that there was no desire to prosecute the man, and that there was no desire on the part of the authorities to punish the humbler classes who might be prompted to acts of violence by the prompted to acts of violence by the groundless reports of inhumanity on the part of the board of health in the burial of those who die of yellow fever. Dr. Metz said that it had been reported on Phillip street on Saturday, that the sanitary officients of the property of the partial of the partial of the property of the partial of the partia street on Saturday, that the sanitary officials were determined to bury the patient, a young girl, in a pine box, if it were necessary to break her bones in placing her in the receptacle. He said that numerous exaggerated and sensational reports of this character were being circulated, and that they were creating intense feeling among the more ignorant classes. The doctor said that the board was willing to give a Christian burial to all who might die of yellow fever, and that it simply desired that the hearses should be thoroughly disinfected and that only the immediate relatives of a deceased person should attend his or her funeral.

Texas Won't Modify Querentine

Texas Won't Modify Quarantine Governor Foster, on Sunday, in response o an appeal from the lumber merchants of Lake Charles, telegraphed to Governor Culberson asking him to use his influence modifying quarantine regulations so that diessed timber might be shipped from Louisiana through Texas. The effect of rigid quarantine had had the effect of practically ruining, for the time being, lumber industry of southwestern Louisiana in which hundreds of thousands of dollars are invested. Governor Culberson replied to Governor Fester today, saying:

"The health officers believe it dangerous to reopen railway lines into lower Lou isiana until cold weather gives immuni: from epidemic. Our own town industrie are suffering from quarantine, but we not imperil the public health by moing rules in force."

Six days have passed since Ocean Springs has had any yellow fever. If the pres ent immunity from disease continues until Friday of the current week, the board of health will officially declare the Mississippi free from fever. Ocean Springs bably be the first to get rid of it. A Request for Money.

The city council had a conference tonight with the local members of the legislature nd it was resolved to ask the governor t place $50,000 at the disposal of the s board of health to aid in the fever fight The legislators present pledged them-selves to sign a memorial agreeing to vote for the appropriation when the legislature meets in May and to obtain enough signatures from the country to guarantee pas-sage and justify the governor's advance

State Senator Romain, who was the re publican candidate for congress, refused to sign the pledge, as he deemed the meas-ure unconstitutional and thought the city amply able to care for itself without ap-pealing to Governor Foster.

Dallas county board of health, which had modified the quarantine so as to permit cars fumigated at Jackson, Ala, to bring freight out of Mobile, has gone back to an absolute embargo on all trains from Mobile. The road threatened to stop traffic on the road altogether, saying that its cars were south of Jackson and without them nothing could be hauled. Thereupen the Daflas board found that it would not be dangerous for these cars to come on. They are to be fumigated at Jackson and afterwards run between Jackson and Selma, but not further south.

BOSTONS BEAT THE BALTIMORES

New Champions Take First Game of the Temple Cup Series.

TEAMS PLAY BY MOONLIGHT Orioles Knock Nichols, the Star, Out of the Box with Ease. JENNINGS PLAYED A GREAT GAME

Hanlon's Men Took the Lead and Looked Like Winners Up to the Last.

Boston, October 4.-The new champions ook the first game for the Temple cup series today, defeating the Baltimores in a close contest, more through a combination f lucky hits and daring base running, as sisted by darkness in the last two innings than by any great superiority of play. Neither team showed chan:pionship form, while the Boston team was at times very

The Orioles batted Nichcls cut of the box and would have given Lewis a similar dose if they could have seen the ball in the last two innings. As it was, the game ended in the moonlight, the umpires ing the players at it until some time after sundown.

The weather was perfect, a mild Indian ummer day, with no wind and a clear atmosphere that was conducive to snappy playing. One of the biggest crowds of the year turned out, and with the assistance of the famous "rooters" and two bands, the enthusiasm, when the home team took the lead in the sixth inning, was almost unparalleled on the South End grounds. Only two bases were allowed on hits into the crowd at left field, and this also militated against the visitors.

Jennings was easily the star of the game his batting being terrific, while his grea work at short was much better than that of his rival. Long. For the home team Captain Duffy led his men in hitting and base running.

Baltimore started the game like winners team realized it, four runs had come over the plate. Boston, however, was equal to the occasion, and hit Nops just as hard and scored three runs. Baltimore added mother in the third through fine batting the fourth and scored on Bergen's single the visitors through hard raps and by Jennings, Kelley, Stenzel, Doyle and Lowe's poor throws, and the home team by two errors and some daring base running. Then the visitors started in to clinch the game. McGraw, Jennings, Kelley and Doyle all hit safe, and but for fine work on Long's part, more than three men would have cored. The home players were not dismayed and encouraged by the rooters they pounded Nops all over the field and by taking desperate chances scored five runs, taking the lead for the first time in the game. the visitors through hard raps and by Jen-taking the lead for the first time in the game.

The visitors forged ahead again in the seventh, Lewis, who had taken Nichols's place, being hit hard. Boston had a fine chance to score in their half, but could not quite connect.

Then came a kick for the game to be called, but although the sun was out of sight, the play went on. Hamilton saved the game in the eight by two marvelous catches, and the Bostons went in to win. It did not take long for the two necessary runs to come over the plate, and again the to come over the plate, and again the team was ahead. The last inning and while the Baltimores tried hard to see ball, and did succeed in making a ple of hits, the strain was too much, after two had struck out. Long threw last man out at first. Score:

DEN OF THIEVES. JUDGE FITE'S WORDS

Sensational Charge to the Grand Jury of Whitfield County.

JUDGE FITE GROWS SPECIFIC Refers to the Car Robberies of the Past Few Years.

SENSATIONAL DEV LOPMENTS EXPECTED

People Are Astonished at the Bluntness of the Charge and Look for an Unusual Outcome.

Dalton, Ga., October 4.-(Special.)-"A den of thieves!" These sensational words, uttered by Judge Fite in his charge, have been ringing in the ears of the people all day. The opening session of Whitfield supe rior court was called to order this morning at 10 o'clock and the charge of Judge A. W. Fite to the grand jury, as indicated, was one which created no little excitement. Contrary to the usual custom, Judge Fite touched upon certain specific crimes in his charge and dwelt at some length on the car which have been so universally talked of broughout Georgia

Judge Fite stated that rumor throughut Georgia had given Dalton a bad case of the black eye: that the town was regarded by many as a den of thieves, and t was currently supposed that the city's most influential merchants have for years been knowingly receiving stolen goods from the Bohannon gang.

The Grand Jury Directed. The grand jury was charged to fully nvestigate the affair and if any merchant, o matter how influential, is in any way uspiciously connected with the affair a rue bill will be found against him. The present grand jury is a very strong ne and will probably do its duty. Excitement is quite high and general talk eems to indicate that some very sensaional cases will be brought before the ourt within the next "two weeks. Witnesses Kept Safe.

REGISTRATION MAY BE 5,630

New Estimate Was Yesterday Furnish ed by Tax Collector Stewart.

TOTAL MAY BE KNOWN TODAY

The Great Number of Duplicate Oaths Has Made the Count Tedious and Complicated.

The count in the registration for the city rimary has reached a stage sufficiently advanced for another estimate to be made The first estimate of 5,200 was materially increased yesterday on account of the progress that has been made to the count of slips and Tax Collector Stewart stated yesterday that the sum total might reach 5,630. It will be remembered, however, that this sum is nothing more than as estimate and was made by a comparison of other years when the registration in a given ward was known. This last estimate is based on figures deduced from the registration in the first ward, which has been counted, making 720 votes The estimate figured up by Mr. Stewart yesterday, is, by wards, as follows: First ward, 720; second ward, 1,240; third vard, 650; fourth ward, 710; fifth ward, 915; sixth ward, 1,190; seventh ward, 205, making a total from these figures of 5,630. "If there is any error in this estimate," says Mr. Stewart, "it is in the fourth and fifth wards. I believe 100 can probably be taken from the fourta ward, as I have es timated, and probably 206 from the fifth ward. This would reduce the total to 5,330. The total count would have been made as early as Saturday night had it not been for the great number of du-plicates in the count. I think the count will be ready by tomorrow afternoon or

In the absence of Walter Johnson th heads of the various departments recognize the indorsements of Lynons in the other small appointments. Lyons has access to the records and files of the various departments, and can help others into ofice, but he can't bring the administration to the point of naming him for the Augusta postmastership. Lyons called at the white house today to talk over the Atlanta case with the pres ident. The term of the incumbent expires is anticipated between Major W. H. Smyth and Colonel A. N. Wilson.

Major Smyth hoped to capture the internal revenue collectorship, but Rucker drew too much water for him, and pulled off that prize. Now the organization, which means Colonel Buck, has thrown overboard all of the other candiates for the Atlanta postoffice and is concentrating its forces back of Major Smyth. In antici pation of some immediate action in th case. Major Smyth has arrived here, and to a conference in a few days.

The Atlanta office is the next prize in Georgia to be contended for; hence the presdent and postmaster general are apt to gia politics during the next few weeks. According to a confidential report of the postoffice inspector, who inspected the recent shooting of the colored postmaste at Hogansville. Ga., received at the postoffice department, a change at that office is recommended. Postmaster General Gary and Chief Inspector Hamlin decline to discuss the contents of the report, on the ground that nothing can be accom-pl'shed by further agitation of the occur rence in the newspapers.

It was reported here that Postmaster Loftin was summoned to Washington to con fer with the president and Postmaster General Gary on the subject. Inquiry at the white house and postoffice department fails to disclose any trace of the Hogansville postmaster. General Gary says he is not aware that Loftin is in town, nor was he among the callers at the white house today.

The postoffice at Hogansville only pays an annual salary of a few hundred dollars, so that Leftin's financial status would be improved if he is given a place on the laborers' roll in one of the departments in Washington. The problem may be solved in that way. The following fourth-class postmasters were appointed today at the instance of S. H. Thurman, Cole City, Dade county, vice William B. Collier, resigned. G. H. Bacon, Eulonia, McIntosh county, vice O. S. Davis, dead. M'ss Emma Wilson, Morcalf, Thomas county, v'ce Cora E. Slater. Dr. J. H. Carter, Sallie, Appling county, vice H. A. Williams, resigned.

PRISONER WANTS TO TALK

Ex-Judge Vincent Is Afraid His Client Might Say Too Much.

TRIAL WILL TAKE THREE WEEKS MORE

Sausage Maker's Lawyer Will Attempt To Impeach Witnesses for the State.

HICAGO, October 4.-An unexpected turn of affairs occurred in the Luetgert trial durafternoon session of court. The defense suddenly dropped its line of expert testimony and put on witnesses to mpeach the evidence of witnesses for the state It was apparent that ex-Judge Vincent, chief counsel for the defense, has at last tired of the expert evidence. The testimony of each succeeding witness was eding witnesses. Nothing was being gained, while the record of the case was being swelled with a volume of technical medical For a week bones had rattled before th jury, and eminent experts had disputed about them. The controversy had become practically a repetition of that of pretiresome to the jury. The counsel for the defense observed this and stopped. Dr. Reise may be called upon to tell of the result of another experiment, but the real stery of the experts as to sesamoids, femurs, metacarpals, temporals and other bones has been told. This afternoon ex-Judge Vincent, Attor-iev Phalen, Arnold, Luctgert and others who are interested in the defense held a consultation relative to whether or not

Vincent said he had not decided upon the matter. It was intimated that Luetgert might be called to the witness stand to morrow. In fact, it is expected he will be State's Attorney Deneen sought informs tion upon this point tonight, but learned only that counsel for the defense would ince their decision tomorrow morning. It is known that ex-Judge Vincent would rather Luetgert remained of the witness stand. Attorney Phalen, his associate, desires that the big sausage maker tell his story to the jury. Luetgert is anxious to explain matters, but the leading counsel for the defense seems to fear the prisoner will talk too much if he goes on the stand, and thus injure his case.

The turn taken in the proceedings today permitted the counsel to get a line upon he probable length of time it will take to finish the trial. State's Attorney Deneen said tonight that three weeks more ought to see the end of the case.

Johnson & Krausse, lays claim to a part of the Hussey fortune, left to the man's Brooklyn nieces. Hussey was a wealthy citizen of Mont-gomery, Ala., who was found wandering aimlessly in New York with $30,000 in government bonds stuffed in his clothes. His Brooklyn nieces took him from police head-quarters to their home. Shortly afterwards he made a will in their favor and then died.

His estate, valued at $300,000, is now being contested for. Mrs. Palaveda claims to be a niece of Hussey. She has a brother, Thomas, who, when last heard from, was working as a printer on a Savannah daily. He is now wanted to come in for his share of the fortune.

Today, bowever, the park board rescinded its former action and approved the original plans, with the proviso that the rapid transit commissioners submit to the board the details or working plans of the proposed construction under parks and streets under the jurisdiction of the park commission. The withdrawal of the refusal to approve the rapid transit plans means that the great underground scheme can now be proceeded with.

MRS. FINNEMAN'S CASE ON TRIAL She Is Suing the Consolidated for Alleged Personal Injuries. The damage suit of Mrs. Mary J. Finne man against the Atlanta Consolidated Street Railway Company consumed the entire day yesterday in the first division of the city court before Judge Reid. The plaintiff is represented by Messrs. Arnold & Arnold and the road by its counsel, Messrs. Goodwin & Westmoreland. The plaintiff charges that as she attempted to get off a trolley car of the com-pany's in front of her residence on Marietta street the car started suddenly without giving her time to alight. She claims she was thrown to the belgian blocks and badly injured. The road claims, that her allegations are false and that she attempted to get off while the car was in motion. It is claimed the accident occurred n November, 1895. Yesterday afternoon Judge Reid charged the jury not to talk about the case and upon the promise of the jurors to bear in mind and obey the instructions of the court the judge allowed the members to disband until this morning at 9 o'clock.

M'CULLOUGH ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

Faces a Jury at Jonesbore on Charge of Wife Murder.

IT IS HIS SECOND TRIAL

Tom Watson for the Defense, Charley Hill for Prosecution

HELD COURT FAR INTO THE NIGHT

Line of Prosecution Will Be To Show Strong Motive for McCullough's Deed.

OHN McCULLOUGH. groomed as if he were going to a wedding, faced the terrible charge of wife mur der a second time with more composure than on the former occa-/ slon when he was arraigned in the Jonesboro courthouse.

His restless, shifty eyes rested with confidence upon a pale and shadowy little man, with frowzy au-burn hair and careless black dress, who sat, taciturnly smiling, beside the prisoner's chair. The little man turned a tired, languid gaze upon the big lean prisoner who, with eagerness, held out a big hand to grasp the little man's outheld palm McCullough sat down quickly beside the little man, who, inconsequent as he seemed, physically, seemed by a sort of magnetism of presence, to draw the big fellow whose neck was so placed in feopardy, close to him for protection. Thus, all day and far into last night, the big fellow hovered by the little one, who now quick and wasp ish, now patient and smiling, now cutting and sarcastic, fought like a glant against any and everything in whatsoever form that seemed to threaten the big man's neck.

It was a long, tedious and trying day for the two men, and the gentleman, who with ability and zeal labored with them. the more trying and the more wearing when along in the evening hours the ghast ly details of blood were wrung, part by part, from the witnesses who were sum moned there to tell the story. The little man-who it might be mentioned was Hon. Thomas E. Watson-only grew whiter and more determined, and the downcast gaze of McCullough more fixed and stolfd.

The day was consumed striking for jurors and several hours of last night in hearing the red details of the murder. Such progress was made yesterday that the end may be expected tonight.

Last Night's Session.

The most sensational part of the proceed ings came with the night session wher the state produced evidence to show the motive for the crime charged to McCul-

An attempt was made to show that Mc Cullough was intimate with his sister-inlaw Miss Jones. This will be the line of the prosecution, that McCullough killed his wife so that he could marry her sister. Mrs Mary Vickers swore that she had seen Mc-Cullough and Miss Jones in compromising positions. She said she had frequently seen the girl sitting in McCullough's lap. Dr. Dodd was another witness who gave sensational testimony. He swore that McCollough came to him to get some medicine for his wife that would produce criminal effect. . The physician swore that he gave McCullough a medicine that would have an entirely different effect from the one desired by McCullough. This evidence was not allowed to go to the jury. When Solicitor Hill asked the witness it McCullough had tried to buy medicine Mr Watson sprang up and offered the objection that the testimony would be incompe tent. Judge Candler sent out the jury he would testify. After hearing the state-and had the witness to tell the court what ment Judge Candler ruled out the statement for the time being. Thus Watson won his first victory by keeping from the jury this most damaging evidence. A number of witnesses were examined.

Judge Candier refused to continue the case when it was called yesterday morn-

Two hundred jurors were sworn before twelve men were secured to make up a jury. It was 5 o'clock before the first witness was put on the stand.

At one time the attorneys for the defense gave up the effort to get a jury and moved to have the trial proceed with only eleven men. This most remarkable motion did not prevail.

McCullough was willing for the eleven men to decide his fate. The state was unwilling and the court continued its efforts to get a full jury.

Tom Watson surprised every one by showing up at the trial. He had secured a leave of absence from the Warrenton court for two days and had come up to help defend McCullough. He is assisting Colonel John B. Hutchinson and Colonel D. W. Rountree in considering the case. The prosecution is being conducted by Solicitor Charley Hill, Colonel W. L. Watterson and Colonel J. G. Travis. The Day's Work.

Judge Candler convened court at 9:20 clock, with a crowded courtroom. McCullough stepped into the room and looked at the sea of familiar faces with the air of a bashful schoolboy. His face did not change color, retaining the sal-low, unhealthy tint. The prisoner was not handcuffed. He was dressed in a new black alpaca coat and wore new blue-striped trousers just out of the store. He had just been shaved and with his neat dress, presented a better appearance than at the former trial. McCullough took his seat by

The day's proceedings began with a motion from Colonel Rountree for a contin-uance on account of Mr. Glenn's illness. This was overruled by Judge Candler, Watson Pushed for Time. "I am willing to do this, gentlemen. If you all desire it, I will postpone the case until tomorrow morning to give you time, as Mr. Watson has been away." Mr. Watson arose and in his peculiar and characteristic way said:

"Your horor, I am very much obliged, but unfortunately my leave of absence extends only until Wednesday morning and I have no time to spare in further prepara-

After a short delay the work of securlag a jury was begun.
When the four panels, comprising fortyeight men, had been exhausted only six of the McCulicush jury had been secured. Only seventy-two men had been summorfed as jurors and after the eixth panel had been exhausted the court had to draw upon the jury box. The names were drawn and a large force of deputies were kept. moning the jurors.

At 1 o'clock court was adjourned because there were no other jurors from whom to select. At that time eleven panels 132 men had been exhausted and only eight men secured.

The recess was consumed in drawing names from the jury box. One hundred jurces were drawn and subpoenas sent out brough the county for the men.

Nearly every eligible man in the county was summoned. Some delay was necessi-tated while the balliffs were gone after the jurors. As fast as they arrived were sent on the stand; 170 men had been examined, when the list was exhausted. At this time eleven men had been sent int the jury room and only one more was complete the necessary number The Jury of Eleven.

Tom Watson now made a startling sug gestion.
"I move that we proceed with the trial with only eleven men if the state is willing," said Mr. Watson.

Colonel Hill, for the state, answered that the prosecution agreed to go on with the eleven men. At this there was considerable commotion in the courtroom. "Call the jury in and let the trial be-gin," said Judge Candler. "What is that?" said Colonel Hill, jumping up in surprise.

"Didn't you agree to have the case tried with eleven men?" asked the judge.
"No, I did not," said Solicitor Hill. "I inderstood that you wanted to put eleven alesmen in the box to be examined for urors. I did not understand that you jurors. I did not understand wanted to try the defendant with a number of men less than twelve."

"What is the state kicking about?"

asked Mr. Watson of Colonel Hill. Solicitor Hill said that he preferred to ait and make all efforts to get juror. He did not like the idea of trying the case with eleven men. The attorneys for the defense tried to persuade the representatives of the state to allow the case proceed with the jurors already secured The prosecution would not agree to this.

At half-past 4 o'clock a panel of juror was put in the box. This completed th jury, which is composed of the following

J. A. Blalock. T. J. Wyatt. I. A. Christian J. H. Stanfield. W. L. Camp. J. D. Lee. J. C. H. Sneed. E. Lindler. . H. Johnson Wm. McLendon. The twelve men were among the most

Trial Strictly Private. Judge Candler caused consternation and disappointment among the hundreds of pectators by announcing that every on would be excluded from the courtroom ex-cept the attorneys and court officers. One by one the people filed out until the courtoom was cleared.

The witnesses for both the state and the lefense were now called in and sworn They were then sent out, with the extained to go on the stand as the first wit-Dr. Nisbet is Clayton's representative in the legislature. He is a practicing physi-cian at Riverdale and is the one who was ed to Mrs. McCullough affer she vas killed.

Dr. Nisbet testified that he had examined Mrs. McCullough's body and that she had two gashes on the left side of the back of her head. The two gashes made a cross, cut into the skull, which was fractured. From the wounds the doctor thought the first blow had been struck from the rear and the second after the lady had fallen to the ground. The Caim, Dead Face.

Dr. Nisbet said he noted the expression on the dead woman's face. "The face bore a calm, undisturbed look, as if she had died without any knowledge of impending danger. She evidently was killed before she knew of any danger, as there was no appearance of fright on her face," said the witness.

The physician testified about the bloody ragon standard. He said that the wound on Mrs. McCullough's head corresponded with a crack in the standard.

The Bloody Trousers. The trousers worn by McCullough on the the killing were exhibited to court. Dr. Nisbet swore that the trousers had blood on them at the time of the arrest of the defendant. Witness said he thought the blood was Mrs. McCullough's Watson Gets Sarcastic.

At this remark Tom Watson arose and in his sareastic voice, asked:

"Doctor, had you ever seen any of Mrs. McCullough's blood before that day, that you were able to recognize it so easily?"

The witness did not think he could have cornized the blood of deceased, even if he had seen it before, but he thought from the circumstances that it was Mrs. McCul-lough's blood. Mr. Watson asked the witness if he could tell the blood of the deceased from that of another person.

Witness was not an expert on human blood and could not make such nice dis-Mr. Watson made an effort to bring out

Mr. Watson made an effort to bring out the theory that the dead woman had been killed and criminally assaulted by some tramp. He questioned Dr. Nisbet closely on points that might support this theory. Dr. Nisbet said that he and another physician had closely examined the body of the dead woman and that there were no other marks of violence upon the body than the two gashes on the head.

Mr. Watson asked Dr. Nisbet if the blood on the defendant's trousers was human or animal blood.

Witness was unable to say.

Mr. Watson asked the doctor if there was not a small blue spot on the neck. The witness said that there was a small, dark spot. Mr. Watson wanted to know if the black spot was not caused by choking. Dr. Dr. Nisbet was sure that the spot was not caused by being choked. He said that if caused by being choked. He said that if there had been a struggle there would have been indications and the dead woman's face would have shown fright. Mr. Watson asked the witness how many people he had ever seen who had died of fright. The witness did not remember that he had seen any one who had died of fright.

Then your position on that point is mere theory," said Mr. Watso

History of the Crime. Mrs. Otie McCullough was murdered by some unknown person on June 27, 1896. She and her husband, the prisoner, lived on a farm near Riverdale. On the morning of the 27th Mrs. McCullough and her husband left the house to pick blackberries. McCullough returned a few hours later without his wife. He asked for her, but she had not been seen. He claimed that he had left her to go look after some farm hands, who were plowing in a nearby field. A search was at once instituted. The body of Mrs. McCullough was found lying to a fence. McCullough was found lying in a fend McCullough was found lying in a fence corner with the skull crushed and the face bruised. A bloody wagon standard was found a few feet away. At first the theory of the neighbors was that the lady had been killed by tramps. This belief did not long hold good. As soon as Kimsey Jones, a brother of the dead woman, heard of the killing he suspected his brother-in-law of the deed, and a few hours later he had John McCullough arrested. The prisoner was tried at the ensuing term of Clayton John McCullough arrested. The prisoner was tried at the ensuing term of Clayton court, held in September, 1896. A mistrial was the result, eleven men standing out for conviction and one against this verdiet. Judge Candler assigned the new trial for the March term in 1897. At that time Colonel Glenn was ill and could not be present, so the case was continued and a special term ordered. The attorney was again too ill and the case was postponed. Since then the trial has been continued three times, making five postponements in less than six Lucas Will Be Released from Detention Camp Today—This Disposes of the Fever Here.

Atlanta is now free from the one case of yellow fever that developed here. The Fleming child has been pronounced by the physicians in attendance as well of yellow fever and today all persons who have been quarantined on account of the presence of the disease will, after a thorough fumigation with formaldehyde gas be given their liberty. H. R. Lucas, the man who has been at the detention camp for the past ten days, will be given his freedom today. He is a liberty-loving man and is awaiting with impatience the release to be given him by the board of health. Every one in the house at 119 Auburn evenue, with the exception of the Fleming child, who is still sick, though the vellow fever has left her, and her father and mother, will be allowed to leave the place. Last night Dr. Olmsted, who has given the Fleming child his personal attention ever since she has been sick with the fever stated that she was considerably better than she had been during Sunday and yesterday forenoon. Dr. Olmsted stated that he expects her to recover and when he an-nounces that she is free from yellow fever does not intend to leave the impression that she is well. CHARMING MADAME TULLY.

Will remain in Atlanta for a limited time only, so ladies who desire to take advantage of her marvelous method of facial treatment for the removal of all blemishes and writkles of whatever character, should do so at an early date. The madame has several suites of apartments in the hotel connected with her personal pariers for the accommodation of ladies who do not wish to remain at home during the process of rejuvenation. Here they are under the personal supervision of this clever woman. About ten days is necessary for a complete rejuvenation of the most stubborn case. The patient may have a skin like parchment to begin with, but when the mask is removed, lo! a marvelous change has taken place, the erstwhile wrinkled and unsightly skin has disappeared, leaving in its stead a complexion as soft, clear and creamy as a child's. The improvement is so pronounce d and rapid that it positively startles one.

Remember that Madame Tully is the only individual in America who gives this scientific treatment with an absolute guarantee of complete success in the most obstinate cases.

The Performance Delayed.

"The death of Bryanism," as the gold men term it, seems to refuse to come off at the appointed hour. The country was promised an exhibition of it on a large scale in New York city this year, but the promise has not been fulfilled. On the contrary, the Tammany candidate, Judge Van Wyck, resents the statement made in The New York World that he was a gold democrat. He declared to a Herald reporter with some heat that the man who wrote the statement knew he was "heart and soul for the Chicago ticket last fall." Consequently, the nomination of Judge Van Wyck was a recognition on the part of Tammany that what is called "Bryanism" is very much alive in New York city today.

In point of fact, however, it is so very much alive that the nomination of a democrat, even on municipal issues, without any allusion to the democratic platform is resented by large numbers of the voters who have heretofore trained with Tammany. These voters have made an imposing demonstration and propose not only to support Henry George, but to make that support significant by reaffirming the Chicago platform.

While the threatened division among the democratic voters is to be regretted, yet there is considerable significance in the fact that the nominees of both wings of the democracy have been taken from among those who cordially supported the nominees of the last national democratic convention.

Instead of proving a handicap. fore, even in New York, it appears that party regularity is the basis of democratic action. No man who went outside the party last year was considered In connection with the democratic nomination. Even the citadel of the bolting democracy has fallen.

Now let the democrats of Greater New York get together and the first mayor of the great metropolis will be "a Bryan democrat."

The Condition of the Stock Market.

It is no secret in financial circles in New York that the recent importations of gold were made at a net loss of something like $3,000 to the million. Why, then, was the gold imported? Simply because the banks, feeling it to be their duty to help along as much they could the recent rise in stocks, have engaged very largely in the business of speculative loans. They have been forced to do this, of course. But, in the face of the depressing influence caused by the sale of American securities held abroad, they have undertaken to hold up the market in this manner, and, so far they have succeeded admirably.

But, recently, the banks have found themselves in a sort of pickle. They have had a choice of two courses. One to call in their speculative loans. which would cause a collapse in the market, no matter how gradually it was reader asks why, the answer is simple. Some of the banks had made call loans to a point where their legal reserve of 25 per cent was trenched upon. They were compelled to make some shift to their loans, and thus give food to the bears, the City National bank and the Hanover imported gold eagles to the amount of $2,500,000, though they could saved about $7,000 on the transaction. conditions call for it or not, is calculated to bolster up the stock market, and, in had no need to call in loans to shield their reserve.

The question that naturally arises is pefore the banks will be compelled to resort to the usual and most natural method of maintaining their reserve, by refusing to loan or by curtailing those already made? That depends, first, on is this statement in the slightest degree the actual conditions of business, and econd, on the action of those who hold American securities abroad. Leaving the business conditions out of view, for these are still in the problematic stage. as the price of cotton and the down! ward tendency of wheat show, it may be said that the solution rests with foran holders of our securities.

There can be no question whatever at English bankers have been for some her sister states of the south are also time and are now engaged in buying richly endowed, and she will hail with reach for the purpose of unloading them on the New York market. Up to this time, there seems to be no limit to these securities. They are sold over here to prevent the export of gold from Dixie. Europe to this country, and this is the reason that, with our tremendous exports, we have been unable to get foreign gold. Our exports are paid for with American securities, for, in the present situation, European bankers value their gold reserves more highly than they do American securities. This is why the governor of the Bank of England recently said that he did not look for any great amount of gold to come to the United States as the result of the higher price of wheat. He knew what was on the cards. He was familiar with the programme that had been agreed upon. Now, when these securities are thrown on the New York market, they must find ready takers or the market will collapse. In order to take them the brokers who are engaged in the business of buying and selling stocks must have ready money, and the only way to get this ready money is through the banks. The question is, how long can the banks stand the strain put upon them by conditions which are purely artificial? The moment they begin to call in their loans, down comes the stock market.

The moment the foreign banks cease to send us American securities, that moment they must begin to ship gold in lieu thereof. As for the supply of securities, that (thanks to the energy of our own capitalists) seems to be without limit. Consequently, it is now a contest between the New York banks, which have reasons of their own not far from political, for maintaining the stock market at a point which the public may mistake for buoyancy. The moment they cease to loan freely, or begin to curtail their loans, the bottom will drop out of the market, for speculation cannot go on without money.

The South's Industrial Progress.

The Constitution has frequently had occasion during the past few weeks to call the attention of its readers to the friendly comment of the northern press upon the rapid growth of this section. Such unanimity of sentiment on the part of newspapers which have often indulged in harsh criticism of the south argues in itself without recourse to other evidence that our growth in recent years must have been extraordinary.

But stronger and more conclusive proof of what the south has recently accomplished is found in the actual figures which our growth itself presents Without going behind the present year. which has been one of marked depression in business circles elsewhere, it may be shown that the south during this period has suffered comparatively little and that fewer failures have occurred in this section than in any other. Taking the south's industrial record for the months of July, August and September, it appears from a table published in the current number of The Chattanooga Tradesman that 474 new establishments have sprung up in the south during the quarter. This particular quarter is not selected for the purpose of making the best showing possible; for, as a matter of fact, the record for the preceding quarter is much better. During the months of April, May and June, not less than 547 new establishments were added to the number of those already in existence, showing that the record for the past quarter is in nowise abnormal or The following table shows excessive. how the new establishments for the quarter are divided among the various industries:

factories Natural gas and oil companies . bosphate and fertilizer companies . Miscellaneous.......

.. 474 While the above showing is not the best which the south has made during the present year, it suffices to prove that the wide-awake enterprise of this section is amply deserving of the generous comment which the northern press has seen fit to pass upon it. When the hardships and reverses which the south has encountered since the war are re membered in connection with the figures above cited, to say nothing of the grievous losses which the war itself entailed upon her, it seems that even the most rabid and pronounced critic of the south must be constrained to mention her name with honor. But what share in the progress indicated in the foregoing table falls to the lot of Georgia? On analyzing the record for the quarter it is found that 55 out of the 474 new establishments started in the south, or 12 per cent of the entire number, belong to this state alone. To appreciate this splendid proportion, it must be remembered that the total increase is divided among fourne, or import gold at a loss. If the teen states. In detail, Georgia has received the following accessions to her industrial enterprises during the past quarter: Brick works 1, canning factories 3, compresses and gins 3, cotton and woolen mills 3, electric light comprevent this, and so, rather than call in panies 4, development and improvement companies 1, flour and grist mills 7, foundries and machine shops 1, gas plants 1, ice factories 3, mines and quarries 3, oil mills 4, waterworks 6, woodworks have sold drafts against the gold and 9, and miscellaneous 5. He Pouts Again.

William C. Whitney-that mighty politician who holds himself personally and individually responsible for the nomination of Grover Cleveland in 1892 -is in the sulks again. It is stated that his friends had a conference with Senator Platt, which was regarded in Wall street, as "a very interesting incident." and that shortly after the announcement came that this mighty North American politician intended to tuck his "influence" under the bed and retire to Europe, there to consort with the various dukes, earls and nobles who have been purchased from time to time by the Astors. Vanderbilts and Goulds as playthings for the female members of their families. It is stated by The New York Herald, almost in a confidential tone, that "Mr. Whitney a month ago hoped to be able to vote the democratic ticket." but his "vested rights have been assailed," and so he has packed up his pajamas and the rest of his duds and proposes to sain at once for Europe.

Well, Mr. Whitney is a very great man in his own mind, but the democrats got along without him last year, and they will be able to get along without him for many years to come. The most mysterious thing in his career is he should imagine himself to be a democrat. It is impossible, in the nature of things, that any man whose associations are similar to those of Mr. Whitney should be a democrat. It is impossible that he should understand the principles of genuine democracy. All his interests, as well as his ambition to gain power and influence by means of money, call him away from democratic princi

It was easy enough to call himself a democrat when the party permitted itself to be controlled by a little coterie of politicians who had their own selfish interests to subserve. But that day is past, and with it the influence of such men as Whitney. This is so true, indeed, that if Mr. Whitney were to go to Europe and remain there the democratic party would never discover his absence.

Even trouble has its bright side. Even a poor man may laugh at Mr. Hanna.

ARE DOING WITH

THEIR CONVICTS

The interest which this state feels in the convict question at the present time makes the experiences of other states in dealing with the same formidable problem a matter of much concern. There is not a state in the union that has not had trouble in disposing of her convicts, and the straits to which some of them have been put would form an excellent subject for a new volume in political economy. It is not so much that the cost of maintaining the convicts is beyond the resources of most state treasuries that perplexes state officials, but it is the necessity, from a physical standpoint, of employing them at something in some place, and the extreme difficulty of doing so without coming in conflict with free labor and free citizenship.

At the present time Georgia has 2,370 con victs, which is far beyond the average of the other states. Nevada has the smallest umber, 70, and Vermont comes next with 155. All the New England states show an excellent condition of morality as viewed by their penitentiary reports. Massachusetts has 759, New Hampshire 181, and Rhode Is land 156. Texas heads the list with 4,505. and New York comes next with 3,721. Georgia is third, and then comes Illinois with 2.822 and Ohio with 2.172. The vary between 400 and 1.400, the average in some for the past year being much less than the total for the present, owing to the invariable increase in crime during a proonged period of hard times.

Except in six states the convicts are controiled by a state commission. In Arizona, New York and Oregon a single head, known as a superintendent, is in charge, and in Iowa that official is known as the state warden. In Florida the convicts are in the keeping of the commissioner of agriculture. In all cases these officials, whether individual or as a public body, are entirely re sponsible for the care and keeping of the convicts, and operate them under conditions of a character so widely different as to show in itself how far we are today from a real solution of the question Throughout the nation at the present time the convicts manufacture nearly everything from bicycles to beer kegs, and it is safe to say that there is not a single state in which they are being worked to the satisfaction of the people.

The cost of maintaining them in the several states varies to such an extent that it is impossible to account for the figures given in the official reports except on the grounds that some are much better taken care of than others. The cost runs all the way from $1.06 per day for each individual in Nevada, to 16 cents per day in Virginia. At the Nevada rate of $376.90 per year man could stop at a good hotel, while at the Virginia rate a man could not even get a decent fraction of a meal per day The exact cost of maintenance in cents per day in some of the other states is as follows: New York..... New Jersey.... New Hampshire. New Mexico.... North Carolina. Arkansas... California. Kansas Maryland .. Massachusetts Vermont..... West Virginia.

This is the cost of maintenance withou any reference to the money returned received by the state from the labor of the convicts. There are several states which are at present making large returns to the treasury, but the large majority show a present and a constantly increasing loss. North Carolina with its 1.198 convicts las year made a profit of $76.53 on an average on the work of each individual in the penitentiary. They are worked on a farm owned by the state, on leased farms and in the manufacture of brick. They are managed by a commission of eleven men appointed by the governor and a plan is no before the legislature to build a central penitentiary with the brick made by the convicts. In the matter of leasing convicts to private parties there is just as much difference. Georgia has been leasing 2,370 for twenty years at an annual rental of $25,000 while Louisiana gets $50 per year for 1,150more than twice as much for less than half the number of individuals in Virginia. Among the other states which operate their convicts on their own account with profit are Arizona, which employs them on state farms and mines and on share farms at a profit per capita per annum of $6.94, and Indiana, which employs them in the manufacture of chairs, boots and shoes, gloves and mits, cooperage, bicycles, saddles and harness and brush and wire goods, at an annual profit per capita of 2.87. The state accepts contracts from Canada and other countries.

In Kansas the convicts are worked in mines owned by the state at an annual profit per capita of $4.61. In Maryland the state accepts contracts for manufacturing boots, shoes and furniture, and last year cleaned up a profit of $23.93 on each individual. In New Hampshire, under the same circumstances, the profit was $27.57. In Texas, where the convicts are hired out on short term leases, pretty much as the Georgia convicts are to be hired out under the new plan, a profit of $21.12 per man has been realized. They are hired to farmers, to railroad contractors and to manufacturers. In Vermont the convicts make shoes and the state realizes an annual profit per capita of $2.16. In Virginia. where convicts are maintained cheaper than anywhere else in the United States, a profit of $37.11 per capita is realized by employing the able-bodied convicts at manufacturing all sorts of articles and placing the others on a state farm.

In many other states where the convicts are used in manufacturing enterprises conducted by the state no profit is realized, but the net cost of maintenance is reduced o a very low figure. In Minnesota, where they make shoes and leather goods and binding twine, the state supports them at a cost of 8 cents a day. In Illinois, where the convicts do pretty nearly everything from quarrying stone to making cigars, the cost of maintaining them per day is only 3 cents. New York, which has struggled with the convict problem without cessation for a quarter of a century, is now manu facturing brush fiber, paper boxes, car-riages and stoves on the piece price plan and still its convicts cost it 23 cents per day per individual for maintenance.

And so it goes. With organized labor or the one side fighting to keep the convicts in idleness and the taxpayers on the other fighting to be relieved of the burden of supporting the criminal classes, the question has always been, and still is, one which persistently defies satisfactory setwhich persistently denes satisfactory set-tlement. It is not to be wondered at, therefore, that the Georgia legislature, after twenty years' relief from the embar-rassment of dealing with her convicts, is now torn up with the conflicting views of a score of members, each possessed of the best plan to remedy the existing evil. LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The Laws in Quarantine Editor Constitution-When the late la-mented Abraham Lincoln prayed that his backbone might be stiffened and when it finally became as rigid as a poker, he had never been through a fever epidemic with varied quarantine trimmings. These might have taught him several things, almost as efficacious and twice as starchy as prayer. The lengths to which panie, and popular clamor born of it, have driven the quarantine moguls of Alabama this year of scare, 1897, are bearing equally hurtful fruit n the workings of business and of law Not content with cutting off their own noses to spite their own practical faces, our next state neighbors are laying up a store of legal trouble for themselves and their neighbors, which could easily be avoided by the application of a little common sense. .The Constitution has already noted that the ports of Alabama (and of Missi for that matter,) have recently turned th

governor down with decisive promptitude

I'wo steamboats prepared to leave Mobile wharves, contrary to what the chief excutive believed to be the law. He wired the sheriff to stop them; that official put on his verbal mandamus and went for his verbal mandamus and went for his As soon as he turned his back, the aptains blew "cast loose," and both boats plowed merrily away. Then the commercial odies of Mobile met and passed resolutions dorsing the action of the captains. A ew days after, the governor wired the sher. to pack up, fumigate and ship to Chief Examiner Purifoy, at Auburn, where e was enjoying quarantine by Montgomery, the books of the late tax collector of Mobile county. The puzzled sheriff was luged by letters from law firms demanding access to the books, and later had a mandamus fired at him by the coroner foreir removal out of the county To The Register, which is the anti-guber natorial organ in Mobile, all this was nuts and it has cracked them by frequent flings t the governor and his methods. When the governor replies that these matters are in purview of State Health Officer Mobile doctor now quarantined at Floma-on, or Whistler-the anti journal again

Toulmin, and has been sent him to Frankfort, Ky., where he now is, and has een duly approved. Meantime, late United States Marshal Morrisette of Monroe county, has officially expired and gon the new incumbent being quarantined out of his Mobile office, and held in Evergreen, complications arise here. Chief Deputy Slaughter holds that his tenure of office, together with that of all deputies under him, expired with the term of Marshal Morrisette; and that there inheres in now in Mobile the power to serve papers on any violater of the United States laws, civil or criminal. As the old plays

"Here's a coil, indeed!" Meantime, the ray of sunlight that peep ed at the United States mail through the Montgomery quarantine fog seems to have hidden its light in haste. Mobile Postmaster Rapier, who is also proprietor of The Register, got orders to double fumigate the mail for the state capital, perfume it with triple extract of formaldehyde and anoint it with three-X oil of sulphur. Then the Montgomery city health officer notified Postmaster Rapier that all the holes must be punched, all the special Montgomery fuming must be fumed at some special point outside of Mobile, guaranteed free from germs and virgin to microbes. puzzled Mobilian wired Superintendent Ter for some solution of the Montgomer; gordian knot. Now we do not pretend to expertness in cracking legal nuts, but it would seen that needless stringency and "unreasonable demands of Montgomery health authorities" may result in complications that only the can untie, after delay that has prov-tal to many public and private interests. A grave question may future national conventions as to how far state quarantines or city health officers may be authorized to obstruct the United States mails and set at defiance the laws of interstate commerce. If a governor and his alter ego, a sheriff, are powerless in face of a river captain and a coroner: 1 a United States postmaster is subservient to a city health officer, there must be a screw loose somewhere in quarantine law and a very long and ragged-thread one at that. It would seem to all men who do not look through fever-taundiced spec tacles that the sooner this screw is legally and finally tightened, the better. A state may have the quasi right to in convenience and constructively defraud he own cit'zens by "crowner's quest law." which comes to replace martial law; bu that a city, of great or small prop has the right to defraud citizens of other states by withholding mails, drafts or orders from legal and usual delivery is another matter; and it is one which may bear ugly and lasting fruit, and scatter causes over the courts as thickly as the leaves of Vallambrosa. HOTEL LAFAYETTE BURNED. Minnesota's Favorite Hostelry Destroyed by Fire. Minneapolis, Minn., October 4.-The Hotel LaFayette, Minnesota's most famous nostelry, is a smoldering ruin. Fire was discovered in the laundry this morning at 11 o'clock. Within an incredibly short space of time the huge structure was a mass of flames.

The building was like tinder and in less than half an hour the entire main building was in ashes.

Of the entire establishment everything was consumed save the boiler house. The big tank caught fire and burst, and the leluge drowned the boiler house. That alone saved it from the flames. LaFayette was begun in 1880 and finished in 1882, and every year since has been a resort for prominent people from all parts of the county. It was the largest summer resort house in the west, being 745 feet long, 95 feet wide and 90 feet high. The total area of floors in the building amounted to three and one-half square acres, or five acres including the kitchen, aundry and servants' quarters, which were all detached from the main building. There have yet been given out as to the l the insurance is said to be about $75,000.

FIRE SUFFERERS WANT HELP. Residents of the Prairies Lost All by the Flames.

Winnipeg, Man., October 4.-Reports con tinue to pour in from all parts of the province of destruction by prairie fires. In some districts not a farmer escaped loss by the fiery wave that swept over the country.

Appeals were made in all the churche last night for aid for those who sustained loss in the bush country east of the city. This was where the two women and five children lost their lives and many other families had thrilling escapes from fires, which hedged them in on all sides. Several familles lost homes, crops and all live stock, and as they are new settlers, are destitute.

On Saturday afternoon the fire ran to within one hundred yards of one of the principal residence portion of the city south of the Assinaboine, and firemen had to be called out to beat out the threatening flames.

Evidence of That Fact. Hamburg, Ark., October 4.-(Special.)

There has just been concluded a trial for murder in Drew circuit court, in which The nstitution, unknown to its man played a very important part. Ben Scott, colored, was on trial for the murder of a comrade named George Clark It came out in the evidence that when Sheriff Hammack and his deputy, William Hammack, who was his son, were called to the scene of the murder, for the purpose of making an investigation, the first clear was found by the younger Hammack, who picked up some of the gun wadding that lay scattered between where the assassing stood when firing the fatal shot and when the assassinated man fell when shot.

Young Hammack's first words on picking up the torn paper were: "Father, for all the world, this is The Atlanta Constitution print!" On examination it proved that he correct, and that the torn pieces were from the issue of The Constitution of April 5th last. When Scott was arrested a few hours later, in his shot pouch was found a part of The Constitution of March 29th, which seemed to prove that he was partial to The Constitution for gun wadding. However, in the other barrel of his gun, which was a double-barreled muzzle loader.

Wells, the prosecuting attorney. made a strong point on this discovery that the gun wadding was from The Constitution There was a lapse, however, in the fac that the wadding discovered was of the Sh of April, whilst the wadding in the prisoner's pocket was of March 29th.

No Unusual Thing. Then the defense set up that the finding of The Constitution in the possession of any man in Arkansas amounted to nothing in the way of proving guilt, because the paper was so generally taken that almost any man might be convicted if its possession was the only proof required. Strange as a may seem, it developed in the jury room that nine out of the twelve jurors who heard the case were regular sub The Constitution, and that they all declared t was the paper most generally circulate

Many of the deputies claimed that as Rucker found them in position he would have the authority to discharge them, their contention being that their positions were permanent. If Rucker desires to apint new men the decision of Assistant Attorney General Boyd will sustain him in "Washington, October 4.—The Star today prints the following: Assistant Attorney General Boyd is writing an op.nion, which will probably receive the sanction of Attorney General McKenna, sustaining the collectors of internal revenue and the United States marshals wno have discharged a large number of deputies. The opinion is really in the case of Collector Brady, of Virg.nia, but will cover the cases of a number of southern collectors of internal revenue who have followed the precedent set by Collector Brady.

"The position to be taken by the decision is that the tenure of office of a deputy collector or deputy marshal runs with that of the chief who appointed him. It will hold that the position is one of an administrative character and that no position of this kind can be considered permanent. No official of the government, it will be held, can be compelled to do anything that is not expressly required of him by the law and it is not required that collectors and marshals reappoint the deputies of their predecessors.

COUNCIL KILLS BAGGAGE PETITION

With One Accord It Refuses To Consider | Council Makes the Last General Apporthe Proposed Chauge.

THE LAW STANDS AS ENACTED

Ordinance Committee Reports Petition by Instruction of Council.

LATTER BURIES THE PAPER FOREVER

Cases Against the Atlanta Baggage Co. Will Now Be Pushed in Police Court by Judge Anderson.

The general council unanimously sat upon he effort to dig up the baggage ordinance adopted several weeks ago with the view of amending the law so that the baggage company can charge more than 25 cents for delivery of a trunk or other piece of baggage to any part of the city. Just as forecasted in The Constitution several days ago, the members of the council were emphatic in their opinion that the baggage law shall stand as adopt ed originally, and with one voice they voted to kill the petition of the Atlanta Baggage and Cab Company asking for an amend ment of the law permitting the company to charge more than 25 cents for hauls. Now that the council has acted and put itself on record as opposed to any change in the law, City Attorney Anderson will appear in the police court at once and ask for the disposition of the two cases pending against the baggage company for violation of the law in refusing to haul baggage from West End to the depot for the maxi-

The city will confend for immediate trial of the cases. The baggage company had no champio in the council yesterday afternoon when the question came up on a report of Mr. George P. Howard, chairman of the ordinance committee to which committee the petition of the company was referred at the last meeting of the council. Mr. Howard stated that when the question was last before his committee he had been requested by several parties to hold the question open so that they could be heard in opposition to the effort to repeal the ordinance. In deference to the wishes of citizens, Mr. Howard said he would ask the council to grant the committee further time to consider the petition. Mr. Rice Calls for a Report. This brought Mr. Frank P. Rice, alderman from the north side, to the floor, and he made a speech in opposition to granting further time on the matter, which had the desired effect. "Mayor Collier, I see no use in granting further time on this matter," said Mr. Rice. "It has been indicated by the statement of members of the council to the press that we are a unit in opposition to n aking any change in the law as it stands, and I see no reason why we should delay the matter any longer. The council is unanimously against any change in the ordinance, and it is foclish to waste time by holding it up. It is unwise to hold up the matter and keep the people worried about it. We had just as well stop the thing right here and kill the movement to change the law so as to allow more than a quarter charge for baggage delivery. "I think 25 cents is enough for any company to charge for hauling a trunk to any part of the city, and I hope the council will instruct the ordinance committee to report the petition back to council so we can kill it right here. I move that the committee be instructed to report the petition back to council now." Mr. Peters said he did not want the council to be discourteous to the committee,

Mr. Howard Reports the Petition.

Mr. Howard said: "So far as I am concerned personally, Mr. Mayor, I would prefer that the petition be reported back now so the council can act on the matter at once. I do not think there is any especial desire on the part of parties to be heard, and feel confident they will be satisfied for the petition to be disposed of without further hearing. The committee will report the petition now if the council desires it."

The motion of Mr. Rice to instruct the committee to report the petition at once was then unanimously adopted. Mr. Howard said the committee would report back the petition without recom-Alderman Rice quickly moved to lay the petition on the table, and the motion was as quickly seconded by Mr. Lumpkin and others. With equal quickness the council adopted the motion without a voice in opposition, effectually killing the effort to repeal or amend the law, and leaving the question where it was when the Rice ordinance was adopted several weeks ago.

It will be remembered that the cases made in the recorder's court against the baggage company for refusing to haul a piece of baggage to West End and for charging more than the maximum price for hauling baggage to a point on Woodward avenue, were postponed at the request of the company, represented by Mr. Hoke Smith, Judge Anderson, city attorney, agreed to allow the case to go over until the council made a final disposition of the question, and now that such a disposition has been made he will appear in court before Judge Andy Calhoun and ask for a trial of the issues.

Court Ready for Trial.

Judge Calhoun was seen by a Constitu-tion reporter at his home last night, and when asked when he will call up the cases for trial, he said that is a matter to be determined by Judge Anderson, city at-

"The cases were postponed by agreement between Judge Anderson and Mr. Sm.th," said Judge Calhoun, "and it remains for the attorneys to agree as to the tim taking up the cases. The court is ready to dispose of them upon appearance of the parties at issue in court."

Judge Anderson states that the city will proceed without delay to secure a disposi tion of the cases pending in the recorder's court. He or Judge Pendieton, assistant city attorney, will probably appear in the court today and ask for a hearing of the cases made several days ago.

It will be recalled that when the cases were postponed in court it was by agreement on the part of the defendants that if ment on the part of the defendants that if the council should amend the ordinance so as to allow the company to charge more than the twenty-five-cent rate fixed by law, the company would plead guilty to the charges without contest. And if the council should fail or refuse to amend the law, the company agreed to admit the truth of the charges and contest the cases simply on the ground that the ordinance is an unreasonable one.

The disposition of the cases in court will by the council yesterday afternoon. Under a ruling of the city attorney no change can now be made in the apportionments and no further apportionment can be made to any department this year. But three apportionments can be made each year under the charter-January, June and October-and the several departments will be required to get along with the moneys set aside heretofore.

As will be seen from the above there are but a few changes and few increases in the apportionments. The finance committee can find but $15,450 to distribute among the several departments and the money has been divided here and there as shown to ricet expenses not anticipated when the last sheet was prepared. The citizens are divided on the question and an injunction was secured restraining the city from proceeding with the work. The finance committee decided to use the money in other directions and when the case in court is disposed of another appropriation will be made if the decision is favorable

ATLANTA'S BIG BE ISSUED SOON

Council Approves Plan To Put $200,000 | Council Considers the Many Proposed in New Mains.

Amendment to Charter Provides for Transfer and Car Fare Amendment Election by the People.

CAUNCIL ADJOURNS TILL 3 THIS AFTERNOON Many Matters Left Undisposed of and Todays' Session Will eB a Busy

One for City Fathers.

OUNCIL has approved the proposed charter amendment looking to the issuance of bonds to the amount of $200,000 to be expended in extending the water 22 system of the city. This means that an election will be held in the near future to give the people an opportunity to authorize the issuance of the bonds, and if the amendment is enacted by the general assembly it is likely that the election will be held early in the winter. It is proposed to extend the water mains to every part of the city so that all the people can be furnished a supply of healthy water, making it possible to abandon the wells of the city. The latter have been source of danger to the health of the community for some time and Mayor Collier has resolved to work for the issuance of the proposed bonds so that waterworks can be put at the doors of the people in the districts now forced to use the impure well amendment on the part of Councilman Lumpkin. He said the amount to be spent is very large and that he could not agree to vote for a measure which would so materially increase the indebtedness of the Mr. Rice Defends Amendment. Alderman Rice defended the proposed amendment. He said the time is here when Atlanta must confront the necessity of extending its water system. The city is growing rapidly and one of the chief reasons the wonderfully healthy conditions. It had been found that typhoid fever and other contagious and dangerous diseases have been caused by the use of well water, and he wanted to see the impure wells of the city filled up. Before that can be done the city's water mains must be extended and the proposed issuance of bonds would bring in enough money to put a main in front of every nouse in the city. Councilman Thompson suggested that the proposed amendment provides for an election by the people before the bonds can be issued and he saw no reason why the amendment should not be asked for.

The amendment was then approved by the council, Mr. Lumpkin voting against it. Adjournment Taken Until Today. The session of the council yesterday was an interesting one, but only a part of the business on Clerk Greene's desk was disposed of. After two bours and a half of work the body adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon to continue the work before it.

The meeting yesterday was the first of the last six of the present council. But five more meetings will be held, two each in November and December and one more in October. The body is now on the home in October. The body is now on the home stretch of its existence and with the end of December one-half of the members will retire from office to make way for the new members to be nominated at the primary next Friday. This afternoon many matters of interest will be taken-up, including a will b erable fun was had at the expense of Mr. Maddox by one of the councilmen proposing to bet $1 that the second ward member

Robert E. Graham scored a success at the Lyceum last night in his brilliant new comedy, "Who's Your Friend?" The play is all and more than was promised. Really, Mr. Graham was not done justice in advance, for the true character piece was not known. "Who's Your Friend" is a clean, pure comedy, free from roughness, yet with plenty of life and spicy dash; in fact, it is well seasoned and

Mr. Graham has much to do with making the play a go. This is not a detraction from the merit of his support, for it is good in even the smallest of details "Who's Your Friend?" gives Otis Dew-berry, who is Robert Graham, an opporunity to get into trouble of every descrip-ion; to be pursued by an irate mother-intion; to be pursued by an irate mother-in-law; to have suppers with pretty girls, when he wishes himself anywhere else on earth, and to finally extricate himself from all his difficulties. In all his pleasures and in all his troubles Otis Dewberry is ably assisted.

MAYOR COLLIER'S SICKNESS THE REASON

Ordinance Committee, Through Its Chairman, Gives the City Fathers a Big Job of Work.

The omnibus bill of proposed city charter amendments which has recently been considered by the committee on ordinances and legislation of the general council, was reported to the latter body by Council-man George P. Howard, the committee man George P. Howard, the committee chairman, yesterday afternoon. The big bill was prepared by Judge Anderson, city attorney, and it was taken up by the council and approved with few exceptions and amendments. Nearly the entire afternoon was consumed by the council in consideration of the proposed amendments and by reason of that fact an adjournment was taken before the bulk of the business before the body had been disposed of. The amendment incorporated in the bill authorizing the city of Atlanta to regulate the fares to be charged by street car companies and to authorize the city to require all such companies to grant transfers was passed over by the council at the request of Mayor Collier, who was sick and unable to attend the meeting of council yesterday afternoon. He desires to be present when the amendment is considered and it went over without

President Woodruff, of the Consolidated. and Mr. Morris Brandon, representing the interests of the car company, appeared in council prepared to contest the issues involved in the proposed amendment, but they went away when told that the bill would not be considered, as stated. The Consolidated will oppose the passage of the amendment and a deternined contest is ahead between the city and company.

Amendments Approved by Council. The provisions of the bill of amend-ments providing for the changes in the present laws as indicated below were approved by the council:

To amend the paving laws so as make it necessary for a majority of the property owners on any street to first sign a petition for the work before said street can be paved. No paving contract tor shall get up any such petition and the same must be approved by the city engineer and commissioner of public works. The present provision for paving cross streets no longer than four blocks will be substantially retained. To authorize the city to repave or re pair any street which has been previously paved or repaired, provided such street avement is worn out and no longer use ful as a good pavement. To amend the law authorizing the city to enforce collection of assessments made on property for street or sidewalk improvements by execution.

To reduce the assessment for lateral ewers from 90 cents per lineal foot to 70 certs. To amend the charter so as to abolish the charter office of clerk to the com-missioner of public works and leaving it discretionary with the council as to continuance of that office. To make the new board of education a charter board and prescribing the con-ditions and terms and duties of the mem-To provide for the payment of salary o members of the board of education.

To authorize the city to condenin prop-

Thirty-six miles of this road were laid with rails and several miles more were graded. There is a gap of forty miles to be graded between the present terminus of the road and Stillmore. This will be built first and then the line will be carried on to Pienora, on the Central, twenty-nine miles

Colonel A. F. Daley bought the road last year and it was reported a few months ago that the Central would take it and complete it to Pineora on the east and to McIntyre on the west, making a cut off for the Cen tral's main line between Macon and Savannah. The extension to McIntyre will not ent plans. Mr. William Schley Howard, of Wrightsville, who is in Atlanta, says that link between Bruton and Stillmore is being built rapidly. Wrightsville to Dublin.

It is said that the South Carolina and Georgia railroad has bought the Oconee and Western, which extends from Dublin, in Laurens county, to Empire, in Dodge county, and Tennille, and the South Carolina and Georgia announces that it will build a link which will give it connection with its Augusta Southern. When the connection is made the South Carolina and Georgia will have an outlet at Empire over the Southern. An effort was made by the South Carolina and Georgia to buy the Wrightsville and Tennille, but the Central would not sell its stock.

The Scuth Carolina and Georgia is heading for Albany and if the people between Empire and Cordele will help, the line will be built to Cordele, where connection would be made with the Georgia Southern and Florida and the Albany and Northern.

FREE PASSES PROHIBITED.

A North Carolina Grand Jury Presents Officials of Two Railroads.

The grand jury of Wake county, North Carolina, has presented the officials of the Southern rallway and the Seaboard Air-Line for giving free passes. North Carolina has a state law forbidding railway of ficials to give passes to any one except to employees of the company and to officers and employees of other companies on an exchange agreement. This law has been on the books for seven years, out has never been enforced.

Judge Robinson, in delivering a charge to Judge Robinson, in delivering a charge to the Wake county grand jury last week, called attention to this law. "If you found your judge coming to his court on a free pass, it would be your duty to present the man who gave it to h.m," said the judge. "It would be the duty of the legislature to impeach the judge."

ed to the forward trucks of the locomotive. A dial shows accurately the distance traveled. Above the dial are fifteen triggers or dogs. When an engineer gets an order he sets a trigger to a point one mile short of the meeting place. When the distance is traveled the trigger falls and the whistle begins to blow. This is kept up for a quarter of a mile and then if the engineer does not act the dev.ce automatically sets the air brakes and stops the train. The train coming in the opposite direction has a similar device and if the engineer does not put on the brakes the mechanism does. ed to the forward trucks of the locomotive.

Grain Going Through.

Forty carloads of wheat passed through Atlanta a few days ago going to Charleston for Export. It had to pass within half a mile of the little girl who had yellow feyer, but Charleston did not refuse to take it. It was the first shipment in the take it. It was the first shipment in the experiment of exporting through Charleston and that city is deeply interested in the success of the experiment. The trouble in shipping through Charleston always has been the shallow harbor, but that has been deepened some of late years and an effort is being made to attract medium draught vessels, there to carry the grain. If the first ship going out does not ground, Charleston looks for several cargoes of western grain.

Matters To Come Up.

Several matters of great importance will e brought up before the convention and is expected that the discussions which will follow will attract attention all over the state. One of these discussions will be on the appointment of a state library commission. A bill to create such a commisanght before the next genno opposition has developed, it is more than likely that it will be passed. It is probable that resolutions will be adopted at the coming meeting in Macon favoring the bill and asking its adoption the general assembly.

Another important matter will be discussion over the advisabilof having a training school librarians at the Georgia Normal and ndustrial coilege. On this question Miss Wallace recently directed a letter to the trustees of that institution in which she clearly demonstrated the advisability of such a step.

One of the features of the coming meeting will be the address by Miss L. E. Stearns, of the Wisconsin state library commission, who comes south for the special purpose of attending the meeting. Wiss Stearns is a well-known and efficient liss Stearns is a well-known and efficient library economist and her address will be looked forward to with much interest.

Mrs. Barbrey Here.

Mrs. Nora L. Barbrey, of the Macon li-brary, was in the city yesterday morning, having been sent here by her association to consult with Miss Wallace concerning the coming meeting. Mrs. Barbrey is the coming meeting. Mrs. Barbrey recognized as one of the most efficient l rarians in the country. Her work in upbuilding the Macon library and in getting it out of debt was a most noteworthy achievement and it has brought her before

She left for her home in Macon yesterday deeply interested in the library question and they are determined to make the as-sociation a success, as no doubt they will. The meeting in Macon is considered one of the most important in library happenings of recent years and it is probable that it will be largely attended.

The Wedding Gowns.

The number of weddings occurring in Atlanta this fall has been of joyful moment to the jewelers and dealers in materials that make charming presents for the any brides. One of the very prettiest and newest presents to be seen among those of the Atlanta brides will be the book entitled "Wedding Gowns," the artistic days' trip to Chickamauga tomorrow.

DESERTER FUTCH AT THE FORT.

The Time for His Trial Has Not Been Set and May Be a Month Off. W. J. Futch, who recently deserted from he United States army and was caught several days ago in Savannah, arrived at Fort McPherson yesterday morning. He was brought here to be tried on the charge of desertion, and if convicted will be sentenced to a long term of imprisonment. Futch says that he deserted, but for what he claims to be a good reason—to see his mother, who was rapidly losing her sight and would soon not be able to see him at all. He was on his way to see her when arrested in Savannah. He has been put in the prison at the fort and will remain there until his trial. The time for the hearing of Fuel Resent Reports.

REPLY TO THE TENNESSEANS

Corona, Elk River and Splint Coal Merchants Make Statements.

NO DANGER OF A FAMINE, THEY SAY

They State That They Can Easily Fill All Orders for Atlanta Even if Tennessee Mines Are Closed.

There are hard feelings between the coal dealers of Atlanta. The Alabama mine representatives say that the Tennessee dealers have been trying to injure their trade.

"Some of the dealers in the Tennesse coal are mad because the firms which handle Alabama coal would not go in a deal with them to raise the price of domestic coal in Atlanta to $5 a ton," said Mr. Stanton, of Stovall & Stanton, representing the Corona Coal Company "You see, they have started the story that our mine has sold its entire output to the Illinois Central Railroad Company. The truth is, that while we have a contract with the railroad to deliver it thirty carloads a day, we are turning out enough domestic coal to supply all Atlanta if necessary. There are three Alabama coal companies with representatives either of which companies could supply every ton of domestic coal which Atlanta could use if the winters were twelve months long. They say that Alabama coal is inferior in quality. Why, our coal took the gold medal at the Atlanta and New Orleans expositions. If their Jellico coal is so superior, why doesn't it get

Mr. E. A. Holmes, manager for the Galloway mines, or the Elk river coal,

"Alabama can furnish all the coal tha will be needed in Atlanta, but it looks as if the Tennessee mines would not be able to fill their contracts. The Jellico miners have left that district and many of them have gone to Walker county, Alabama. We have some of them, the Corona company has some and the Virginia and Alabama mines have more. That is where the shoe pinches. We have our mines going and the Jellico mines are shut down. They have not been turning out any coal since last April. There would be great danger of a coal famine in Atlanta if it were not for Alabama We can come to the city's rescue. Our coal, the Elk river coal, is conceded to be superior in quality to any coal that comes into Atlanta. I got the contract for the McPherson barracks, which took 2,000 tons, and I got it at the same bid which other dealers made. We are selling plenty of coal to the railroads, but that is steam coal, and we have besides that an abundance of lump coal for do-

Fighting Alabama Coal. awarded the contract to supply the city and county with Corona coal. The city took 2,300 tons. "The mayor and city officials were perfectly satisfied with the coal in every respect, and to prove it we delivered all that we had contracted for and we got our money." Mr. J. W. Wills, who handles the Virginia and Alabama coal, said that he would put his up against any Tennessee coal for quality. He 'said that there seemed to be an effort to run the Ala-bama coal out of this market. "But it cannot be done. We get cheaper freights, mine more economically and can afford to sell for less than the Tennessee min-

The frineds of Mrs. W. Y. Atkinson will be delighted to learn that she has recovered from her recent illness.

The Alabamians intimate that the Jellico co coal operators are in a bad fix so far as reopening their mines goes. Alafar as reopening their mines goes. Ala-bama is just cleaning up the Tennesseeans on every side," said one of the former. "Our coal is mined cheaply, although we pay better wages than are paid in Tennessee. That must follow, of course, or the Jellico miners would not leave there and come to us for work. The Elk river, Corona and Virginia and Alabama mines are the three largest producers of domestic coal in the southern states, bar-ring none. I expect the Tennessee op-erators are getting desperate. You see that Alabama is taking the business. Their miners have been on a strike five months or more, and if they wanted to resume tomorrow they would not have the men to start up with and produce at their former capacity. The operators Mrs. Thaddeus E. Horton has returned home.

in the Jellico district have already lost more from closing their mines than they would have lost in a life-time by acceding to the demands of the strikers. Probably they see something more than a temporary shut down staring them in the face At any rate, the Alabama mines are ready to send all the coal to Atlanta that she will require, and it will be good coal at reasonable prices, not an advance as is threatened by dealers in coal produced in other states. Any Atlantian who has not yet laid in his winter supply can get it from any of the Alabama min-ing companies here, and it will be delivered promptly. You will not get a ton to get another and then not be sure what you are getting."

SEABOARD ELECTION TODAY.

Annual Meeting of Stockholders Is To Be Held at Portsmouth. The annual meeting of the Seaboard and Roanoke stockholders will be held at Portsmouth, Va., today. Up to last night neither side had shown its hand, and if any surprise is to be sprung today the nature of it is still a secret among One year ago there was a great hubbub in the annual meeting. Mr. Thomas F. Ryan, of New York, made a contract with some of the large stockholders by which he expected to get control of the company and the whole Seaboard Air-Line system. Mr. Hoffman was re-elected, but it was given out that Mr. Ryan was the real master of the situation. The very day after the election Mr. Hoffman began a campaign to defeat Mr. Ryan's plans and he succeeded.

Mr. Hoffman formed a pool in which he got more than half the stock and the pool was to last five years. He held the proxies and he would not turn them over to Mr. Ryan. The latter tried to break the pool by a suit in the courts, but he never got the case to a trial. Today's meeting may be a very quiet one.

CHURCH MEMBER SUES HER PASTOR

Coal Dealers Who Handle Walker County | Rev. Elijah Fisher, of Mount Olive Baptist | Order Taken to That Effect Before the Church, Is Defendant.

SHE SUES FOR BIG DAMAGES

Sarah Harris Says Her Pastor Has Injured Her Character.

RACY ALLEGATIONS ARE IN THE PETITION

Case Will Create a Sensation When the Church Members Testify in the City Court.

Rev. Elijah Fisher, pastor of the Mount Olive Baptist church, is defendant in a racy suit for damages which was filed yesterday in the city court by Sarah Harris, who was a member of the church until she was dismissed some time ago without trial or a copy of the charges which had been preferred against her.

The suit is unusual on account of its allegation. It was filed by Attorneys John W. Moore and C. B. Reynolds, who represent the plaintiff. The amount of damages asked is $5,000 and it is allowed that the cd is $5,000 and it is claimed that the charges made by the preacher against the plaintiff have caused a general breakdown f the nervous system and has caused her to be in bed repute in the neighborhood in which she lives.

The petition recites that on September 29th, Pasto: Fisher, while addressing a large congregation, composed of petitioner's friends and neighbors, stated as follows friends and neignoors, stated as follows from the pulpit:

"The character of Sarah Harris is such that if known to her husband he would not live with her another day. I have seen things going on in her house with my own eyes that are too horrible to be told here. She is running a disroputable house and a disorderly house and she is the talk of the centive community.

The petitioner declares that this statement was unauthorized and untrue and that she has been above reproach. She declares that the statement was made on account of malice and a "maudlin desire" to injure her reputation and character. The petition says:

"Defendant grossly and intentionally misrepresented petitioner's character in making such false and ungrounded assertions in reference to petitioner, and defendant knew at that time that he was willfully and intentionally endeavoring to injure the reputation and good name of the petitioner.
Defendant, a few weeks before said time, had expelled petitioner from the church without giving her any notice of trial or copy of charges and without allowing her to defend herself, all of which acts go to show the bitterness and maudlin desire upon the part of the defendant to wrong your petitioner."

or Fisher could not be seen yesterday statement. It is said he has employed counsel and will prove the charges which are made to be true. The case will be quite a sensational trial when the 200 members of the Mount Olive Baptist church appear in

INCOHONEE DANIEL TO SPEAK

They Are Anxious To Increase Their Membership and Will Make This "Jubilee Year."

The Improved Order of Red Men in Georgia are feeling the good effect of the successful session of their great council held in Philadelphia in September. A new enthusiasm has been instilled into the membership and they seem determined to go to work for their order.

The great incohonee in his long talk to the great council suggested that the coming year be celebrated as the "golden jubilee" year." and that an especial effort be made to reinstate suspended members. The suggestion was heartly indorsed by the great council and the great incohonee was given full power to adopt such plan as he thought wise and proper to carry into ef-

The great incohonce has developed a plan that will prove attractive and advantageous to the suspended members of the order and the great sachem of Georgia, Ed White, Jr., is actively at work presenting the same to the tribes in Atlanta. Great Sachem White visited every tribe in Atlanta during the past week and laid before them the plan of the great incohonce and also discussed with the tribes a plan to get the great incohonee and the great chief of recrods of the great council of the United States to visit Atlanta in about two weeks. Judge Robert T. Daniel, the great inco-honce, and Charles C. Conly, the great chief of records, will attend a mammoth meeting of Red Men of Kentucky in Louis-ville on October 14th and on October 15th a banquet will be given these distinguished Red Men at the Maxwell house in Nash be shown the exposition. The Red Men of Atlanta desire to get these two great chiefs to appear here on Monday night, October 18th. Judge Daniel and Mr. Conly have spoken together during the past year in many of the larger cities of the east and have everywhere had immense crowds to hear them. They are well suited to speak from the same platform; their styles being alto-gether different, they furnish an evening of rare entertainment.

They present the cause of the Improved Order of Red Men in a most striking and attractive way and the order grows after every visit of these two great chiefs. big meeting in Atlanta on the 18th, and are invitation will be extended to Judge Daniel and Mr. Charles C. A stubborn contest over this new hope for the condemned man will be waged and it is not too much to say that every inch of ground will be exhaustively gone over. A financier is necessary as head of the finance committee, an engineer is just as much needed on the street, sower or bridge committees, and a physician on committees related to his profession. This olan would save much time to executi officers and therefore save money to the taxpayers. Everything Favored Bulls in Stocks in the Early Market.

LATER THE TIDE WAS TURNED

Bears Put Their Opponents To Rout Wiping Out All the Gains of the Earlier Trading.

New York, October 2.-There was little New York, October 3.—There was nice more in today's market than a running contest between the bulls and bears, in which the bulls were successful during the early part of the day, but in which the bulls were and put bears turned the tide later and pur their opponents to rout, wiping out all the gains of the earlier trading. There was everything in the bulls' favor in the early market, the lively buying on Sat-urday having apparently reassured foreign arday having apparently reassared folegate eapital, so that prices of American securi-ties on the London exchange were ad-vanced before the opening here. Prices of the international stocks opened about on a parity with the London higher level, The mass of orders in the hands of commission houses and which were put into execution immediately showed that the home public as well as the forestreet he ome public as well as the foreigners, believed that the market had turned again The sensational jump in Manhattan at opening of over 7 points also stimulated the rise, though the small volume of purchases on which the stock was carup and the heavy offerings immediate y invited by the advance quickly showed hat the jump was purely manipulated. The pinched shorts having covered, the price quickly receded, and transactions in he stocks proceeded on a normal and still tantial advance on the prevalent belief that a movement was developing for the absorption of the property by surface railroad interests. Consolidated Gas was also on hand with its regular sensation, also on hand with its regular sensation, and rose 5½ points on the opening sale. The railroad statements for today, all of which showed a continuance of the heavy increase of earnings, fanned the flame of the bull enthusiasm. Of these the most notable were the fourth week, or monthly statement of St. Paul and Rock Island, the fermer showing an increase for the month of $32.717 and the latter of $344.02. Southern Pacific's August statement made the remarkable showing of a gain in the net earnings of $455.41. The advance of the market under these influences and under aggressive leadership extended from 1 to 2 points. The higher prices invited heavy realizing sales, and the bears added the pressure of short selling under which the advances melted away in most cases, the net losses being, however, for the most fractional. Union Pac'fic was a notable exception, its loss extending to 1½. Quite a number of the less active stocks escaped the later liquidation and retained net gains to a point or over, but the level of the particles as whele closed decidedly level.

Sugar was an active feature all day, and is later weakness was a material factor breaking the market. The bond market showed decided activity, and prices held steady for the most part against the late weakness in the stock market. Total sales were

o a point or over, but the level of the narket as a whole closed decidedly lower

New York, October 4.—By Associated Press: There was a steady and fairly active market for cotton with prices 2@3 points higher on the near months on the first call, while the later months were unchanged. After easing off 1@3 points, there was a general advance on local covering following improved cables and reports of frost in parts of the cotton belt. At the best point the market showed an advance of 5@10 points. There was little or no outside speculation to give support. Buying was checked by claims that the quarantine had been raised in Mississippi and Texas points. The market advanced sharply just before the close on active covering by local shorts and closed firm at a net advance of 7@8 points. Total sales 141,200 bales.

The Dry Goods Market. New York, October 4-The week opens under restricted conditions. The occurrence of another Jewish holiday on Wednesday, of another Jewish holiday on Wednesday, with the consequent assurance that the week will be a broken one, seems to have led both sellers and buyers to rest on their oars. The trading of today was quiet in nearly all lines in some quarters certain grades of cotton goods were decidedly weak. Print cloths show the same dullness as heretofore and the market same duliness as heretofore and the market is easier. Prints are generally quiet and firm. Weolen goods, fir both men's wear fabries and dress goods, are the strong factor in the situation, though the advancing market for raw wools gives manufactured. turers a small margin on which to operate, although prices are quite firm. Sliks are still very strong and are selling, on the whole, better than any other goods. Knit goods underwear and hosiery are very irregular, the prices now prevailing being entirely inadequate to insure a profit for manufacturers. entirely inadequantifications.

Riordan & Co.'s Cotton Lecter. New York, October 4.—(Special.)—There was a decidedly better feeling in cotton oday and the conviction that prices are low enough seems to be gaining ground. The Liverpool advices were encouraging. The Liverpool advices were encouraging. Spot sales there were larger, and that market advanced ½ to 2-64d. Our market showed little animation at the opening and prices ranged on the call from 3 points above to 2 points below the closing figures of Saturday. January sold at 6.35. Liverpool was selling here, and after the opening the market weakened, January decining to 6.32. The selling pressure was soon exhausted, however, receipts were quite moderate and the temper of the market changed again. The small loss was quickly recovered and in the afternoon the market secred a good advance and closed firm, with 6.41 bid for January. The character of the buying today was good. We favor buying on breaks.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

Atlanta, October 4.—The course of the cotton market this morning has furnished still further evidence that temporarily at least the market has practically discounted, in the decline recently experienced, all the unfavorable factors in the situation. There has been no pressure to sell; and, although the speculative demand still continues limited, it has been found sufficient to absorb the offerings and bring about a slight advance of from 4 to 5 points. The developments have been of a bullish nature. In tha first place, Liverpool cables were considerably better than expected; then the volume of receipts is under earlier anticipations, in view of the less rigid quarantine regulations in the southwest. A rather better feeling prevails, and the sentiment in favor of cotton will increase unless the movement soon assumes considerably larger proportions. Our advices indicate that there are many people who are waiting to enter the market on the basis of about 5c for January, believing that that figure will about mark the low level, but in view of recent developments it would seem likely that they may be disappointed in securing the cotton they desire. A slightly improved feeling is reported from Manchester, consequent upon the receipt of a larger volume of orders from the east. The sale of 10,000 bales of spois in Liverpool this morning and the recent increase in the volume of exports reflect a better demand from spinners, which, owing to the large vacuum to be filled ought to still further improve. Ports receipts today are 48,015 bales, against 61,526 last week and 74,554 last year. Crop reports still continue

Atwood Violett, Lockwood & Co.'s

Cotton Letter.

New York, October 4.—The better market today was produced partly by improvement at Liverpool, at decided failing off in port movement as compared with last year. Shorts have recently found that the long interest, carried down from about 7c to current prices, has pretty well determined to see even further decline than so far realized. Some buying for investment account is growing, and this has helped to change somewhat the local sentiment, the bulls being now in the majority. This could not have been said for some weeks past. The short side seems to have squeezed out of the market pretty well all that could be secured by a forced bull liquidation. It will now be in turn for the latter to reciprocate these attentions, and all that is needed is some general buying to put the market in good shape. We still advise buying cotton on easy periods. Cotton Letter.

Upward Movement Resumed. PROFIT TAKING OVER.

Profit taking started the deciline in prices which has been very much augmented by short selling. There has been the best kind of buying for the past two days by people who have sold their holdings at higher prices and are now buying them back. Conditions of every kind continue to improve and now that the market's equilibrium has been restored, the upward movement will take a fresh start on a reorganized and stronger basis and will be very much helped by the covering of the large short interest now accumulated. The liquidation that has taken rlace has eased the banks and with large imports of gold from abroad the money market will be well supplied with funds. Securities will again be in urgent demand and at higher prices than we have yet seen.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

New York. October 4.—The action of the market shows that on this side of the Atter of the past week have found their demand supplied by Europe. It is believed there that the movement is seriously interrupted by the quarantine regulations throughout the south. This is true of a large portion of the Mississpit valley, especially in the country tributary to New Orleans. In Texas there has been a modification of the regulations, and the movement shows an increase. Traders are lader or paccounts in favor of the market after such a sharp decline, and there has been sufficient demand to absorb the European selling. There is no general increase in speculation to be noted, as spinners still believe in a mammoth crop. During the afternoon some of the local operators began buying again and there being little cotton for sale, the market advanced 3 to 4 points, closing firm.

ON YERGE OF PANIC

Wheat Prices Slumped Nearly 2c in About as Mary Minutes.

THE DECLINE WAS RECOVERED

Corn and Oats Were Dull-Corn 1-80 Higher and oats and Provisions Were Unchanged.

Chicago, October 4.—Part of the long line of wheat held by the buil clique went-over today. The selling of it caused a weak market, but the strong foreign situa-tion asserted itself sufficiently to cause the market to close at substantially unchanged prices. Other grain and provision markets were remarkable chiefly for their dullness, corn closing 1/2c higher, while oats and provisions were unchanged at the close. The opening in wheat was quiet enough and some strength was shown, December which closed Saturday at 894@89%c, startwhich closed Saturday at $8\%q$8\%c, starting today at from $8\%q$8\%c, but ten minutes after the opening the market was treated to a break which for a few moments put traders on the verge of a panic. The price slumped nearly 2c in about as many minutes. It came so suddenly that the trade was convinced that Saturday's curb stories of put purchases of $3,000,000 bushels had some foundation in fact, and that the leading buil interest was getting ready to liquidate. These rumors had the effect of precipitating general seiling and December dropped to $8\%a and soon after gave indications of settling down, around $\%coloning coloning Liverpool cables noted a decline of \%d fram Saturday's closing, there had been a sharp little rally there later. There had also been a reduction of 225,000 bushels last week in Liverpool warehouse stocks of wheat, and there was a very sharp advance in the stock market at New York. It was these influences that made the comparative strength at the outset, although receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth were large at 1.518 cars, against 1.427 cars last week and 1.630 last year. The weather map also showed that the drought was partially broken in the northwest by showers which covered the three big spring wheat states. The world's shipments of wheat last week are again large at 9.244,000 bushels, against 9.607,000 bushels a week previous and 9.048,000 bushels for the corresponding week last year. Thoman's October report, refterating his former estimate of a total wheat crop of $80,000,000 bushels, undoubtedly assisted in increasing the pressure of the wheat market during the early break. The visible supply increased 1.561,000 bushels for the week. As the day advanced it became more and more evident that large holdings and long wheat were being thrown on the market was met on every little rally by so much properly that it quickly dropped again. During the last hour, however, the market was substântially correct. The market gave evidence of having pretty thoroughly digested the offerings. The br ing today at from 89\\(^4\)@89\\\(^4\)c, but ten minutes after the opening the market was treated to a break which for a few mo-ber ranged from 29% to 29%c, closing at 29@29%c.

Oats followed wheat and corn. Elevator interests sold quite freely on the early decline, about the only business of importance of the session. Toward the close the market gradually rallfed and closed where it left off Saturday. Receipts were 656 cars. Visible decreased 131.000 bushels. December ranged between 19%@19%c, closing at 19%c. Outside the selling of January product by a few of the leading packers there was very little business done in provisions. The market was weak early on the yellow by a few of the leading packets they every little business done in provisions. The market was weak early on the yellow fever news, but firmed up later on the recovery in grain and on a slightly improved demand. Closing quotations were unchanged from Saturday: December pork $8.20. December lard $4.55@4.57, December ribs $4.75.

Estimated receipts Tuesday: Wheat 390, Estimated receipts Tuesday: Wheat 290, corn 570, oats 400 cars, hogs 20,000 head.

Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Grain Letter.

Atlanta, October 4.—During the forepart of today's session the selling of wheat by holders was the principal feature. Initial trades were at a slight advance over Saturday's final figures, but a few offerings soon developed the fact that there was scarcely and demand, when everybody attempted to sell at once and prices broke very quickly 1½c per bushel. The market reacted quickly about %c, but long wheat continued to come out, and the price for December remained below 83½c until about midday, when some improvement was shown, the result mainly of firm cables and reports from the seaboard that about 40 loads had been sold for export. Liverpool closed remarkably strong %c%d higher, thus totally ignoring the break here Saturday, white Paris recovered a portion of the decline noted here Saturday, closing 15@75 centimes up. Antwerp was unchanged. The world's shipments were less than the week previous, those from Russia being $50,000 bushels. Exports were moderate. It is believed that considerable of the selling was of long wheat held by the built cliques, the relative weakness of December as compared with May suggesting this. Shorts took advantage of the decline and covered quite freely, and during the last half hour there was quite spirited buying by scalpers and other traders on encouraging advices from the seaboard of a large export business. Corn declined early in sympathy with the break in wheat, but reacted and closed steady. Elevator people were the best sellers, floor traders doing the greater portion of the buying. Samples were a little higher. Clearances were small and receipts moderate. There was an increase of 1,451,000 bushels in the visible, which was offset by a decrease of 1,780,000 bushels on passage.

Provisions have been dull, and fluctuated largely in sympathy with grain. Packers were credited with buying, supposed to be overing their shorts. Outside trade was light owing to the yellow fever. Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Grain Letter. Eastbound Shipments.

Chicago, October 4.—Eastbound shipments for week ending September 30th amounted to 51,900 tons, against 51,749 the previous week and 63,993 last year. It was divided among the different roads as follows: Fort Wayne, 7,533 tons; Michigan Central, 4,361; Wabash, 5,416; Lake Shore, 6,214; Fanhandie, 7,485; Baltimore and Ohio, 3,506; Grand Trunk, 5,321; Nickel Plate, 5,154; Erie, 4,070; Big Four, 2,821. The lake lines carried 127,102 torfs.

Imports of Wheat. Liverpool, October 4.—The following are the imports of wheat into Liverpool: From Atlantic ports, 57,300 quarters; from Pacific ports, none; from other ports, 4,000 quarters. Receipts of corn: From Atlantic ports, 52,200 quarters.

A FULL INSPECTION TODAY

The Officers and Men of the Fifth Anxious To Be Put on Their Mettle.

INSTRUCTION IS THE OBJECT OF THE TRIP It Will Be the Most Extensive Trip Uncle Sam's Boys Have Ever Had.

March Through Alanta.

The final preparations for the long march of the Fifth infantry of Fort McPherson have been made and the trip will be begun tomorrow morning. Nearly 600 soldiers will be in line and these, with the officers and the long wagon train, will make a fine This afternoon at 4 o'clock the final inspection will be held. Everything going on the march will be carefully examined by Celonel H. C. Cook and his assistants. The men and their personal trappings will be looked after and it will be seen that they are ready to commence the march. The horses of the officers and the commis sary department will receive their share of attention and the wagons and their contents will be put through the same treat-

This will be a complete parade and inspection of everything at the fort. Colonel Cook says it will be the most thorough that has been held there in some time and he will be very rigid with all the departments. If they are not in excellent order some one will receive a severe reprimand.

Early Wednesday morning the tramp, tramp, tramp of the regiment will be heard on the pavement of Atlanta as the soldiers go by on their way. They will come into the city over Whitehall and go out Marietta street to Marietta road and continue in a northwesterly direction until they reach the national park.

Places for camping each night have al-ready been chosen by Engineer Brown and each day the men will be required to cover the distance between the points. It is expected that they will find no trouble in making the necessary distance, since the cool weather will greatly aid the soldiers and prevent them from becoming tired or Colonel Cook will be accompanied by his entire staff. The regiment will be in two battalions and four companies in each of these. The signal corps, the hospital corps and the other branches of the service will be instructed en route.

Chief Engineer Brown, "as they will take observations while the marching is done. The country through which we travel is of very rough nature and we think we will have every opportunity for the work."

GEORGIA STATE LIBRARY. Who Will Be Appointed Librarian by Governor Atkinson?

From Sunny South. that the governor will have to make in the near future is that of state librarian; and In this connection a brief historic sketch of the library may not be without interest. It was first located at the old capital, Milledgeville, and during the war was captured by General Sherman. Later the books were removed to Atlanta and placed in the old capitol building on Marietta street. Here, no special apartments having been assigned for the library, the volumes were scattered through the building from basement to garret. Early in the winter of 1889 the new librarian, Captain John Milledge, classified and boxed them and skidding them down flights of stars to the streets, had them hauled on drays to the library rooms of the present new capitol building. The library at that time was in a very depleted condition, but today it is said by competent judges to be the finest and most complete library in the south. In occupies the second and third stories of the Hunter street side of the this connection a brief historic sketch six rooms, and besides well filled shelves, there are also large boxes filled with books.

In addition to these rooms there is a supreme court special library, which is equipped with well-selected reports and text books by distinguished legal authorities. Exclusive of pamphlets, the number of volumes is nearly 65,000, and so rapid is the accumulation each year, either by exchange with other states or by purchase, that it has recently become necessary to add new shelf room for the accommodation of 3,000 new volumes.

The library contains, besides a full line of law books, all the principal encyclopedias, histories, works of reference and very many old and rare publications, such as the celebrated Dr. Renne collection.

To duplicate the printed treasures that rest upon these shelves would require nearly $250,000, and a large number of rare books could not be replaced at any price.

The duties of the librarian are varied and important. He must keep an accurate account of all books coming into the library, either by exchange or sale, the accounts of booksellers audited and paid; supply all books to the public officers of the state and to members of the general assembly who are entitled to receive them. In addition to all this he must keep up a constant and accurate correspondence with the officers in the 137 counties of the state. It also devolves upon the librarian to see that those who visit the library, either for pleasure or study, meet with a courteous reception. TRUSTEE ELSAS OUITS THE BOARD

He Retires from the Grady Hospital Board of Trustees.

RESIGNATION SENT TO COUNCIL

It Was Presented to the Board of Trus tees Several Days Ago.

MR. E. W. MARTIN TO SUCCEED ELSAS HE THINKS ALL WORK SHOULD STOP

Council Will Elect Mr. Martin To Fill the Unexpired Term at a Meeting This Afternoon.

Mr. Jacob Elsas has resigned as a memer of the board of trustees of the Grady ospital. His resignation was presented to the board at its last meeting, but no an-nouncement of the fact had been made until the resignation was transmitted to the eneral council yesterday afternoon.

The first intimation of Mr. Elsas's retirement came to members of the council by the reading of a communication from the board of trustees of the hospital, signed by Mr. W. L. Moore, secretary, notifying the council that Mr. Elsas had presented his resignation to the board with the request that it be sent to the council.

The board recommended that the vacancy aused by the resignation of Mr. Elsas be filled by the election, for the unexpired term, of Mr. E. W. Martin. The recommendation will doubtless be concurred in by the council, and at an adjourned meet-ing of the general council to be held this afternoon Mr. Martin will be elected a member of the board. Mr. Elsas gives as a reason for his resignation that his business requires all of his attention and time, and that he cannot devote the necessary time to the duties of trustee. His retirement is a source of re-great to the members of the board, and

Mr. Elsas was urged to remain in the board, but he declined. The term made vacant by Mr. Elsas's resignation expires in March, 1898, and his successor will be chosen for that time. Mr. Martin's selection for the position will give general satisfaction. He has long been regarded as an earnest friend of the Grady hospital, and has rendered the in-stitution's officers assistance and en-couragement at all times.

ARMORY FOR HORSE GUARDS

Contemplating a Handsome Structure for the Company.

THE MEETING TO BE HELD SOON

Will Not Be Allowed in Fifth Regiment Armory, So Will Build a Separate Home.

The determination of the Fifth regiment to build an armory has started the cavalry and artillery of Atlanta not belonging to the Fifth to realize that they must have

The Governor's Horse Guards have been for a long time contemplating an armory, and it is not a new thing to them. They have been waiting for some time on ac count of their mability to secure the ready money. They desire to have all the money raised before any of the work has been able to push their building to a rapid comdetion. They are computed to be the vealthlest military organization in the outh, and it will be very little trouble for hem to build as soon as the location and plans have been agreed upon.

They have at the present time about forty members, and the dues from these nore than support the company and pay more than support the company and pay all the expenses. They have a large num-ber of honorary members that give much into their treasury, and with the capital they now have out drawing interest, they are well enough off to build themselves a magnificent home. It was thought that the Horse Guards would be invited to join in the armory of the Fifth regiment, but this has been given up, and only the infantry companies will be allowed to go into it Mr. Asa G. Candler, a prominent member of the company, owns the property, and will give it to them at a low price. They will give it to them at a low price. They will erect a large building, and the lower floors will be rented for stores and offices. Above will be the armory. A drill hall will not be necessary, as their drilling is done on horses, and they will put in instead handsome clubrooms for the use of the members of the company and their friends.

They may have a large ballroom and re-They may have a large ballroom and reception rooms. A military library with all the periodicals, especially those relating to army and military matters, will be kept constantly on file. Baths and a pool and all modern conveniences will be a part of it. The entire plans will be perfected in a few days, and a meeting of the company will be held to decide upon it. /

MINISTERS CONDEMN SUNDAY VIOLATIONS

Evangelical Association Pays Its Respects To These Who Work Sunday.

THEY SAY THE DAY IS HOLY

Pastor Cleveland Objects to the Delivery of Sunday Mail.

The Seventh Day Was Hallowed by the Lord and We Should Keep It Holy," Says Pastor Bealer. Sunday newspapers, railroads operating passenger or freight trains on the Sab bath and the postoffices which deliver mail on Sunday came in for criticism yesterday morning by the Evangelical Ministers' As Rev. T. P. Cleveland, secretary of the association, declared in an enthusiastic address before the meeting that Sunday news-papers were not necessary to the welfare of the Christian and the good of civiliza ion. He declared with emphasis that the civilized world could get along without the Sunday mail. Rev. R. O. Flynn read an interesting paper upon the observance of the Sabbath The paper was the result of careful investi gation, as stated by its author, and it de-clared that the ministers were to a great degree responsible for the failure of majority of the world to observe the Sab bath day. He thought the ministers were poor teachers in that they were not posted upon the subject themselves. Rev. A. W. Bealer, one of the speakers on the programme, took the position that the city pastors should awaken the conscience of the members of the congregation of their churches. It was the sentiment of the meeting that all work that could be done in the weel should be transacted on week days and that no work should be allowed on the Sabbath unless it was absolutely important and could not be transacted at other times Mr. Allard Barnweil, of the Episcopal church, said that a great deal dependent upon the construction placed on the work and the purpose for which it was done. He said some ministers would rather wank to fill an engagement than to ride on the cars. He saw no objection to a minister traveling on the Sabbath on min.sterial work, but for pleasure he said it was on of the Sabbath laws.

After the discussion of the subject saveral of the miristers raised the point that was not proper to have church notices appear in the Sunday newspapers.

Dr. Meyer Will Not Come. Rev. F. B. Meyer, the celebrated evan gelist who is a co-worker of Mr. Moody, will not receive an invitation from the ministers of Atlanta to visit the city and conduct a crusade on sinners and 8.h.

This was the substance of the report of the special committee of ministers which has had the question under consideration and discussion since the appointment of the committee several days ago. The decision is the result of a protest which was entered against Mr. Meyer on account of his alleged doctrine. It has been claimed that he is neither Method st. Bantis no. Presbyterian, but a mixture in whi h a denominations may find a little part to play.

At the last session of the Evangelical Association Rev. R. O. Flynn, paster of the Kirkwood Presbyterian church, lutroduced a resolution asking that Dr. Meyer be given an invitation to come to Atlanta and conduct one of his famous revivals. The matter was referred to a special committee, and by its report yesterday morning this committee decided to decline the invitation which had been suggested.

It was decided at yesterday's session that the association will hereafter meet at 19:30 o'clock and spend only fifteen minutes in routine discussions and that the remainder of the session would be spent in the discussions and of the session would be spent in the discussion of the general topic.

Will buy a beautiful 6-room cottage, No. 487 Loyd. The house was substantially built by skilled white labor. It is strictly modern and a self-seller. If you will see the house we can sell you.

We are building two other houses. When finished they will be beauties. One is a five-room cottage on Dodd avenue, near Formwalt, the other a 7-room house, corner of Pulliam and Ormond streets. Get your money ready by the time these are completed or you will get sadly left.

We have several bargains in vacant lots on Pulliam, Loyd and Pryor streets. If you have city property to exchange for farms, see us. C. H. GIRARDEAU & CO., 8 East Wall.

Are you going to marry? Are you planning to keep house? Do not begin in a rented house. It can never be a real home. Have you $300 to $500 cash? We will sell you a pretty cottage at Kirkwood, on large lot, and furnish to suit your taste. One-fourth cash on entire purphase, balance in monthly notes not much more than rent. Paying rent does not always enrich the landlord, but surely keeps you "poor indeed."
